Cross-Cultural Council Hosts In-Person Workshop: Fostering Inclusivity and Productivity in the Workplace

Jackson, MI - The Cross-Cultural Council is excited to offer the Cross-Cultural Conversations workshop, in-person scheduled for Friday, April 12th, from 9am – 1pm at the Commonwealth Commerce Center located in downtown Jackson, MI. The Council invites community members to attend this training to learn about, uncover, and address systemic racism, biases, and barriers for our community members. This session illustrates the importance of fostering inclusivity and promoting cultural understanding within your organizations and in our broader community.

The world continues to undergo significant transformations, and with these changes comes a renewed appreciation for the importance of cross-cultural dialogue. Our in-person workshop aims to provide a platform for meaningful conversations, where participants can delve into their personal cultural experiences while gaining insight into the diverse perspectives of their colleagues, community members, and clientele.

"By embracing our differences and acknowledging the richness they bring to our workplace, we can unlock new potential and foster a more cohesive and inclusive environment for all," says the Cross-Cultural Council.

Paving the way through interactive sessions and guided discussions, participants will gain practical strategies for enhancing their daily interactions, both within the organization and with external stakeholders and will provide participants with valuable tools and resources to integrate inclusive practices into their day-to-day operations, ultimately contributing to a more vibrant and harmonious work environment.

Registration for the Cross-Cultural Conversations in-person workshop is now open, and seating is limited. To reserve your spot or learn more about the event, please visit: https://bit.ly/Cross Cultural Apr24
