Nonprofit Network celebrates 25 Years of Impactful Collaboration with Nonprofits and partners with Jackson to provide no-cost Workshop Series on Nonprofit Basics and Board Governance

Lansing, MI – Nonprofit Network is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Jackson, a financial services firm committed to clarifying the complexity of retirement planning, to offer free nonprofit basics and board governance workshops in Lansing.

The first workshop, "Finance Basics for Your Nonprofit," will kick off on Wednesday, April 17, 2024, at the Marshall Street Armory in Lansing, MI, offering invaluable insights and strategies for nonprofit staff, board, and volunteers who don't have finance experience but are responsible for overseeing your organizations fiscal health. In May, they will offer Grant Writing Basics, in June is Foundations of Board Governance, and in November will be a Board Recruitment and Orientation workshop. Capacity is limited, so, please register to reserve your space at www.nonprofnetwork.org

These no-cost workshops are designed to equip nonprofit leaders, board members, and stakeholders with the knowledge and tools necessary to enhance their organization, governance, and achieve sustainable growth.

"At Jackson, we are committed to investing in communities where our associates live and work," said Danielle Robinson, vice president, corporate communications, and responsibility at Jackson. "We are proud to support the work of Nonprofit Network, to strengthen the many nonprofits providing impactful services through these workshops."

Nonprofit Network, a capacity building center, is a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting and strengthening the capacity of nonprofits to achieve their missions effectively. Formerly the Jackson Nonprofit Support Center, it was started 25 years ago by the Foundations in the Jackson community to ensure that nonprofits had a trusted partner, providing resources, training, and expertise to empower nonprofits and drive positive change in communities.
